Memories of the Village Shop
1876-1992

Henry Hathaway

It stood on the corner, so easy to reach,
Helpful for those with troubled feet,
Shelves were packed with goodies complete,
And a smile to greet you, a welcome treat,
It served the village for many a decade,
From Father to Son yes, Palmers's the name.

Our school days and in early teens,
Many memories to recall with esteem,
It's bakehouse aroma, fresh crusty bread,
Delivered to our homes to keep us fed,
Their tasty cheese, neatly cut with a wire,
A wholesome snack, a welcome desire,
I'll remember that cheese of childhood,
The cottage loaf we cut with a knife,
Kids helped with errands and housework,
And men went to work, not the wife.

It was Gilbert then, on the grocery side,
Florence his wife, on the drapery would abide,
Her measure and scissors firm in hand,
Cut lengths to order, so precise would stand,
Gilbert, to us kids, such a friendly fellow,
Keeping his patience, despite our bellows,
He sometimes would a tuneful ditty sing,
And challenge us kids to learn and bring,
The reward was tempting, sweets or a cake,
What an effort we would all make.

It took much patience, I can assure,
Even in class it was a lure,
When progress gradually did take shape,
back to Gilbert's, our efforts to make,
Then standing shy at the counter with glee,
The reward to receive, fruit cake for tea,
Names of character in this shop have been,
So sad now, they have all left the scene.

Us local kids and friends, whoever,
Made our fun for simple pleasure,
Now times have changed in our wake
For progress, if any, yet to make,
But days are all uncertain still,
Whichever way decides your will.

With no available money for flicks,
Just the usual Saturday kicks,
The simple games we played in the paddock,
Then ran home to a tasty faggot,
Or cheese which never needed an ice chest,
And bread, so crusty and hot,
Boys and girls were seldom unhappy,
And mothers content with their lot.

I'll remember long that cheese of childhood,
And the cottage loaf we cut with a knife,
We helped with errands and housework,
And men went to work, not the wife,
Yes, I remember the shop on the corner,
When a penn'orth of lollies was sold,
Do you think I'm getting too nostalgic,
Or is it that I'm just getting old?
